BIOGRAPHY

Danielle Rodrigues joined Licks Attorneys' Rio de Janeiro office as a legal intern in 2020 and became an attorney at law in 2025, focusing on intellectual property and administrative law.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Rodrigues interned at the State Court of Rio de Janeiro, providing technical and legal support under the direct supervision of judges, judicial clerks, and court staff. Her responsibilities included reviewing the formal regularity of case filings and procedural progress, updating internal court systems, recording procedural movements, and assisting in the drafting of procedural deadlines and judicial decisions.

Ms. Rodrigues currently works in close collaboration with litigation teams, handling cases in the pharmaceutical industry, managing the lawsuit monitoring team in state and federal courts, directing proceedings before Brazilian government agencies, and assisting with information security matters.
