BIOGRAPHY

Victoria Campanhã has been an attorney at law at Licks Attorneys' São Paulo office since 2026. Ms. Campanhã focuses her practice on regulatory affairs, life sciences, and public law matters, advising companies that operate in highly regulated sectors, particularly the pharmaceutical, medical device, and healthcare industries.

Her practice encompasses regulatory strategy, market access, government affairs, administrative proceedings, and matters involving interactions with public authorities and regulatory agencies. She also advises clients on public procurement, government contracting, healthcare regulation, and compliance issues.

Prior to joining Licks Attorneys, Ms. Campanhã gained experience in complex litigation and advisory matters involving healthcare, intellectual property, digital law, and administrative law. She has advised national and multinational companies in highly regulated industries, with a particular focus on the intersection of healthcare, innovation, technology, and public policy.
